PART 11. Background and Advice

The Police Arboretum Memorial Trust is an organisation that has been working for a number of years to create a substantial memorial to fallen members of the Police Service. The Trust has identified a project to create the memorial in a location central to the country to enable the public to visit and also identified a proposed cost for the project of £4m.

The Trust is undertaking a wide range of fund raising activities and has been successful in raising almost £2m to date with some £320,000 of that coming from Police Commissioners and Forces.

The Trust is now seeking a further commitment from the Policing sector and has asked that each Commissioner agree to provide £1,000 per year for the next 5 years towards the remaining target (providing just over £200,000 in total).
