PART I

1. Background and Advice

Officers of the OPCC have developed the Procurement Strategy, in consultation with the Constabulary's Director of Resources and Purchase and Procurement Manager.

The Procurement Strategy attached at Annex 1 is linked to Objective Five of the Police & Crime Plan 2013-18 which is to deliver services in the most efficient and effective way possible.

If the Police and Crime Commissioner and the Chief Constable are minded to approve the strategy an Action Plan will be developed and presented to a future meeting of the Joint Management Board. Progress will then be monitored through the Strategic Scrutiny Meeting.

2. Links to the Police and Crime Plan

The Procurement Strategy will support the Police and Crime Commissioner's objectives within the Police and Crime Plan on which procurement is relevant to all, and the Constabulary in achieving its strategic objective of making best possible use of resources.

3. Consultation

4. Implications

a. Legal

b. Financial

One of the key drivers of the Procurement Strategy is to 'demonstrate best value in our procurement process.

c. Equality considerations

A full impact assessment is not required as the strategy will not disproportionately adversely affect any protected characteristic community as defined in the Equality Act 2011.
