2018/76	18.10.18	WDTK		What value of asset can the chief Constable 'dispose of'? Who values the 'asset' prior to the Chief Constable 'disposing of it'. What was the official valuation of PN07 ECJ at the time of donation. Please provide formal documentation to the above valuations of public assets. Why would such valuable asset be 'given away' they can easily have been sold and returned to the police funds. What was the official process for donating such a valuable asset and why to this particular charity? Bearing in mind, the NWBB charity chairman is an ex Lancashire police motorcyclist and a JP. As an example, an R 1200 RT motorcycle is currently worth (at today's prices) as much as £6,000. I am keen to identify the valuation at the time the bike (police asset) was 'donated' the the charity whose chairman	Response uploaded to WDTK on 14.11.18	Yes

				happens to be an ex Lancashire police motorcyclist. With regards to the other bikes mentioned (for transparency), please can you provide the same information relating to valuation at the time of 'sale', who valued the bikes, and why they were 'sold' at a loss when they could have been sold for a higher value, possibly supporting multiple charities.
