				force must have an Information Management Strategy (IMS): https://www.app.college.police.uk/app-content/information-management/management-of-police-information/common-process/#-common-process-at-force-level As you will know, the IMS should be made available to partners and the public, and I would therefore ask you to please provide me with a copy of your local police force IMS.
2021/09	15.06.2021	Email		I would like to know how long enquiries are taking by Lancashire Police into bringing the perpetrators to court of historical grooming of young girls? How much money has been paid in compensation to the victims of being groomed?	Response sent by email on 05.07.2021	Yes
2021/08	09.06.2021	Email		Firstly It would be highly appreciated if you could inform me on the law/guidance on a police officer using and deploying 'Pepper Spray'? Secondly I would like to know on what grounds does a police officer need to arrest an individual for the public order offence of Drunk and Disorderly? Finally in addition to the two previous questions when arrested for said offence and having had pepper spray deployed upon a person what paper work would you be released from custody with? And when requesting the information of the officer that deployed the pepper spray and or the information of the arresting officer for example the collar number should this be given?
