PART I

1. Background and Advice

Pol-Ed is a prevention initiative that allows schools and police to deliver expertly planned inputs themed across relationships, keeping yourself safe and understanding the law.

Lancashire Constabulary has collaborated with Pol-Ed to develop inputs in response to emerging themes for example e-bikes and the use of vapes.

Since the launch of Pol-Ed in January 2025, 635 out of 846 Lancashire educational establishments have signed up to the resource – 75% of educational settings.

Key highlights include:

- 3134 school inputs to 94,020 students
- 629 police inputs to 38,404 students

From December 2025, professionals such as community groups and care workers will be able to access Pol-Ed resources and deliver inputs to children and young people outside of traditional school settings, including one to one sessions.

This expansion is part of Pol-Ed's broader mission to support safeguarding and education through police-led initiatives and reflects a growing recognition of the role that non-school professionals can play in youth engagement and education.

2. Links to the Police and Crime Plan

Pol-Ed supports the Commissioner's priorities; prevent violence against women and girls, tackle crime and anti-social behaviour and get tough on serious violence.

The Commissioner aims to deliver his priorities through effective partnership working, with a strong focus on prevention. Prevention is structured across three levels: primary, secondary, and tertiary, and Pol-Ed inputs span all three areas.
